Agenda: Presentation and Vetting of the Revised Institute Vision and Mission Statements of the Institute

The IQAC meeting was convened to present the revised Institute Vision and Mission Statements, incorporating the suggestions and recommendations received from the stakeholders and members during the previous IQAC meeting.

The following points were presented before the Committee:

1. The revised Vision and Mission Statements were prepared after incorporating the suggestions and recommendations received in the previous IQAC meeting.
2. Revised statements were presented before the members for review and final consideration.

Vision

To be a globally recognized institution of excellence in technical and management education, fostering research, innovation, entrepreneurship, ethical leadership, and sustainable solutions for societal advancement.

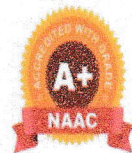

Mission

M1. Academic Excellence: To impart world-class technical and management education through time-tested and innovative pedagogy, experiential learning, interdisciplinary education, and continuous academic excellence, fostering the holistic development of learners.

M2. Research, Innovation & Entrepreneurship: To cultivate a vibrant ecosystem of research, innovation, entrepreneurship, and industry collaboration that transforms ideas into innovative, impactful, and sustainable technologies, products, and enterprises.

M3. Societal Impact & Sustainability: To develop competent professionals with ethical values, environmental consciousness, inclusivity, and the ability to address local and global societal challenges through appropriate technologies.

M4. Leadership & Lifelong Learning: To nurture leadership, critical thinking, creativity, adaptability, lifelong learning, and professional excellence for meaningful contributions to society

3. Revised Vision Statement was explained with emphasis on the Institute's aspirations towards global academic excellence, quality technical and management education, research and development, innovation, entrepreneurship, social responsibility, and addressing local challenges through global technologies.
4. Revised Mission Statement was presented, highlighting the Institute's commitment to quality education, research, industry collaboration, innovation, entrepreneurship, ethical values, and holistic development of students.
5. Members reviewed the revised Vision and Mission Statements and confirmed that the recommendations from the previous meeting had been appropriately incorporated.
6. After detailed deliberations, the revised Vision and Mission Statements were vetted and unanimously approved by the committee.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Dean-IQAC.
